CHATEAU AT LAKE LA QUINTA By JESSIE DAX-SETKUS

When venturing to Palm Springs, many believe that desert solitude is the only option when it comes to a boutique hotel. Enter The Chateau at Lake La Quinta. This chic hotel is the only spot in Palm Springs to offer lakeside views along with their tranquil desert getaway.

Guests are welcome to dine at the Mélange Restaurant and Bar, which is run by the celebrated and local Executive Chef Nestor Ruiz. Opening its doors in 2015, this contemporary yet relaxed restaurant offers indoor-outdoor accommodations, dancing, handcrafted cocktails, and a seasonal menu sourced from top-notch California-operated family farms.

New couples have the unique opportunity to experience the hotel's "L'Amour" romance package that features a perfect desert getaway for two. Couples get to indulge in two 60-minute massages, a bottle of Champagne, breakfast in bed, and romantic views from every room in the chateau. Early morning tee times at one of the area's five PGA courses, and long walks around the European-styled hotel grounds under the stars are wonderful for added romance.

The Chateau at Lake La Quinta also allows your furry friends to experience the lakefront fun as well thanks to their "LPetit Pup Program" that welcomes canine guests under 25 pounds for overnight stays. Your best friend will be pampered with a Martha Stewart pet bed along with fresh food daily from the pet menu from the Mélange restaurant, a Nyla bone, and Ry's Ruffery grain free organic treats to gnaw on. The Chateau at Lake La Quinta truly offers something for everyone at their desert oasis.
